JOHN D. MILNE

JOHN D. MILNE brings over 30 years of experience in government affairs to The Group.

Prior to joining The Group, he was a Senior Vice President of a prestigious Washington, D.C.-based government relations firm. Additionally, Mr. Milne served as Director of Federal Government Affairs for 3M in Washington, D.C., where his responsibilities included a broad range of corporate issues including healthcare, pharmaceuticals, transportation, trade, and tax as well as representing 3M with Washington based national business associations.

Mr. Milne's 3M experience also included government affairs and strategic planning at the state and local government level. He managed sales and marketing operations for 3M's Traffic Control Material Division in the highway safety markets. As Marketing Director, Mr. Milne's responsibilities included management and oversight of political consultants, as well as management of sales valued in excess of half a billion dollars with state, federal and local governments.

During his tenure at 3M, Mr. Milne developed extensive relationships with state governors and legislators, as well as members of Congress, the executive branch and the diplomatic and national business communities. These relationships allow Mr. Milne to communicate his clients' legislative and regulatory priorities to those in positions to effect change.

During his career, Mr. Milne has served on numerous boards of directors, including the American Road and Transportation Builders Association, American Highway Users Federation, the Council of State Governments Advisory Board of the Century 21 Fund, the National Industry Advisory Board of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators and BIPAC Project 2000.
